Teacher Answer Key

Case Study

1. Actively planning and participating gave teens hands-on experience, deepening their understanding and sense of ownership over the traditions.

2. Engaging in cultural activities firsthand allows them to connect emotionally and physically, reinforcing lessons in a memorable, immersive way.

Multiple Choice

1. D

2. A

3. B

Matching

1-C, 2-E, 3-D, 4-A, 5-B

Fill-in-the-Blank

1) festive, 2) Cultural exchange, 3) Social influence

Short Answer (Sample Responses)

Q1: Events that encourage cultural sharing and mutual respect help students see similarities and appreciate differences, fostering empathy.

Q2: Without historical context, the day risks losing its significance, reducing cultural pride and meaningful reflection.

Q3: They can partner with schools, provide accurate historical resources, and include diverse voices in planning to ensure broad accessibility and respect.