Teacher Answer Key

Case Study

1. The address links holiday traditions to citizenship by mentioning nurses, teachers, volunteers, and service members as models and asking listeners to "listen more carefully" and "help more freely"—actions tied to responsibility.

2. The repeated use of "we" and "our" frames the audience as a single community with shared challenges and hopes, even while recognizing different beliefs.

Multiple Choice

1. D

2. B

3. A

Matching

1-D, 2-C, 3-E, 4-B, 5-A

Fill-in-the-Blank

1) freedom (accept: religious freedom, tolerance), 2) citizenship (accept: civic responsibility, public service), 3) technology (accept: digital media, social media)

Short Answer (Sample Responses)

Q1: Look for mention of personal stories (family, traditions) combined with civic themes (service, unity, dignity); example: the case study mentions lights on the tree and also calls for everyday kindness.

Q2: Students should note that in crises people look to leaders for comfort, explanation, and direction; holiday messages can acknowledge pain while reinforcing resilience and shared values.

Q3: Strong answers name one value and tie it to a concrete example, such as focusing on service by praising students who organize a local food drive, or emphasizing unity by highlighting cooperation across different communities.