Teacher Answer Key

Case Study

1. Examples: wiped-looking wall/smear near light switch suggests cleanup; broken frame/disturbance suggests more than a slip; phone taken indicates control/isolation; rapid threatening texts contradict "joke" claim; doorbell video movement conflicts with calm story.

2. Independent sources cross-check each other; if one is disputed, the other can still support the timeline and reduce "story flexibility."

Multiple Choice

1. A

2. C

3. D

Short Answer (Sample Responses)

Q1: Shared spaces mean DNA/trace may be expected; investigators use context, location of evidence, scene disturbance, and timelines to interpret contact.

Q2: Injuries and scenes can change quickly; early photos/notes preserve facts before cleanup, fading bruises, or story shifts.

Q3: Healthy love respects privacy and "no"; pressure to prove love, tracking, threats, or isolation are red flags—talk to a trusted adult/school support early.
