Teacher Answer Key

Case Study

1. Creating high-seas MPAs and requiring impact assessments.

2. Enforcement is difficult because no single nation controls the high seas, and resources vary by country.

Multiple Choice

1. B

2. C

3. D

Matching

1-D, 2-E, 3-B, 4-C, 5-A

Fill-in-the-Blank

1) carbon, 2) impact, 3) compliance

Short Answer (Sample Responses)

Q1: By creating public pressure and encouraging governments to adopt stronger protections.

Q2: Climate change, ocean acidification, and deep-sea mining.

Q3: It is the first treaty to address biodiversity protection in international waters.