Teacher Answer Key

Case Study

1. The Great Potato Famine caused starvation and economic desperation.

2. They established cultural institutions, influenced local politics, and introduced new traditions that became part of American society.

Multiple Choice

1. C

2. A

3. B

Matching

1-C, 2-E, 3-A, 4-B, 5-D

Fill-in-the-Blank

1) Immigration, 2) Migration, 3) Immigration

Short Answer (Sample Responses)

Q1: Emigration can lead to a shortage of skilled professionals, but remittances help local economies, and returning migrants may bring back valuable expertise.

Q2: New leadership or shifting political ideologies can lead to stricter border controls, reduced quotas, or more extensive vetting processes for newcomers.

Q3: Host societies often expect newcomers to adopt local norms, yet immigrants wish to maintain their traditions, creating a delicate balance between integration and cultural preservation.