Teacher Answer Key

Case Study

1. Nearly all nations agreed to take action against climate change, a rare global consensus.

2. Challenges include lack of funding, political disagreements, and balancing growth with sustainability.

Multiple Choice

1. D

2. B

3. C

Matching

1-D, 2-E, 3-A, 4-C, 5-B

Fill-in-the-Blank

1) Sustainable, 2) sea-level, 3) Montreal

Short Answer (Sample Responses)

Q1: Local action ensures daily sustainability, while global agreements coordinate large-scale goals.

Q2: Youth pressure leaders, and technology enables knowledge sharing across borders.

Q3: Collective action and monitoring can solve environmental problems when countries cooperate.