Teacher Answer Key

Case Study

1. Local entrepreneurs offered discounted rides and food, drawing crowds despite limited budgets.

2. Nostalgia, ocean views, and family-friendly attractions create a timeless appeal that spans multiple generations.

Multiple Choice

1. C

2. B

3. C

Matching

1-C, 2-A, 3-B, 4-E, 5-D

Fill-in-the-Blank

1) labor reforms, 2) boardwalks, 3) barnstorming

Short Answer (Sample Responses)

Q1: Baseball offered an accessible pastime tied to emerging urban identities, uniting diverse audiences around a shared sport.

Q2: As work hours shortened, middle- and working-class Americans embraced vacations, weekend trips, and outdoor recreation, supporting new industries.

Q3: Modern boardwalks and family road trips continue to embody a sense of adventure, nostalgia, and shared experiences, reinforcing summer as a unique cultural season.